

Fall 2006 Docent Continuing Education Program

Thursday, September 7, Docent Social and Fall Orientation, 5:00 p.m., activity room

6:00–8:00 p.m., Zelda by Herself: The Art of Zelda Fitzgerald, auditorium

Exhibition lecture presented by Eleanor Lanahan, author and granddaughter of Zelda Fitzgerald.

Monday, September 18, 10:00 a.m.–noon, auditorium

Part I: Artist David Mascaro will speak and demonstrate the stages of oil painting, relating his talk to the Morris collection.

Monday, October 2, 10:00 a.m.–noon, auditorium

Part II: Artist David Mascaro will continue his seminar.

Sunday, October 8, 2:00 p.m. (optional), meet in second floor lobby

Explore the shared lives of Zelda and F. Scott Fitzgerald through a performance and discussion by ASU professor Ted Atkinson and his students in the galleries.

Friday, October 13, noon, auditorium

Art at Lunch, in conjunction with a docent meeting immediately following the presentation. Join us as Bessie Nickens's daughter Barbara Cohens and sociologist Dr. Juanita Howard talk about the career and work of Ms. Nickens, a self-taught artist whose work is in the museum's permanent collection and is included in the exhibition Our Neighbors Collect: African American Art. Buffet lunch by Donna Jannik Event Planning and Catering. $10 charge for lunch or bring your own.

Week of October 16

Educational road trip. More information will be announced soon.

Thursday, October 26, 5:00–8:00 p.m.

5:00 p.m. Docent Meeting, Activity room

6:00 p.m. Edward Rice, special lecture and reception.

Monday, November 6, 10:00 a.m.–noon, auditorium

Curator Jay Williams will speak about An Unbroken Circle: Selections from the Julia J. Norrell Collection, in for the exhibition opening on November 16, 2006. The acquisition of more than 900 artworks will include work by Eldredge Bagley, William Tolliver, Deborah Luster, Walker Evans, Jonathan Green, Eudora Welty and others.

Thursday, November 16, Docent meeting, 5:00 p.m., activity room

6:00–8:00 p.m. Exhibition Opening: An Unbroken Circle: Selections from the Julia J. Norrell Collection, Exhibition lecture presented by Judy Norrell.

Monday, November 27, 10:00 a.m.–noon, auditorium

Smithsonian intern Jacquetta Ransom will give a PowerPoint presentation and discuss her experiences during Summer 2006 as an intern for the Smithsonian American Art Museum. The focus will be intergenerational learning in the art museum.

Monday, December 4, 10:00 a.m.–noon, auditorium

Holiday continental breakfast. Tom Nakashima will give a sneak preview of his 2007 spring exhibit.