Volunteer Name: _____

Because members of the Teen Advisory Council will not only act as public representatives of the Morris Museum of Art, but also plan and implement programs that will be held at the museum, it is necessary for the museum to verify members' ability to conduct themselves in a mature, professional manner. The museum asks all volunteers to complete and return this form. The information provided by you and your referees will be used to determine your suitability for the Teen Advisory Council. All collected information will remain absolutely confidential. The Morris Museum of Art reserves the right to bar those individuals from participation in the volunteer program that it assesses are not suitable.

1. Please provide below three personal references. References must be over the age of eighteen and preferably have known you for at least one year. All references should be able to describe your ability to conduct yourself in a mature, professional manner. You may include one parent and one teacher. If you have previous work experience, please include your employer.
